Background information on the Chang Family Foundation

The Chang Family Foundation continues to reach out not only to the community but also to local churches/organizations through various domestic Christian programs as well as Michael's speaking engagements. The Christian Sports League has been established and is growing in the Seattle, WA and Orange County, CA areas over the past 10 years. The purpose of CSL is to grow and nourish believers in their personal walk as well as to reach out to non-believers in helping them know more about Jesus through sports and relationships.

Some other programs that CFF has implemented include a NeXt Generation tennis camp in Industry Hills, CA, a Friends and Family Cruise through the Hawaiian Islands and just recently, a USTA sanctioned adult charity tennis tournament and clinic in Orange County, CA. For more information about the tournament, please visit www.changtennis.com.

Interested candidates should send their résumé and cover letter of interest to the Chang Family Foundation.
